Ecclesiastical Ministry Bursary Awards

<http://www.ecclesiastical.com/> - search for "Bursary Awards"

The Ecclesiastical Ministry Bursary Awards have helped hundreds of ministers to finance their extended study leave. In fact since being established in 1987, Ecclesiastical's centenary year, nearly 1,000 members of the clergy have now received awards for a wide range of extended leave projects and plans.

Entry Criteria

Entries for an award must fulfil the following criteria:

- Awards are open to individual clergy in the Anglican Church in England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland.
- All clergy applying for the awards must be in full-time stipendiary ministry in the Anglican Church and must have been ordained for at least 10 years.
- Applications are also open to church dignitaries – Archdeacons, Bishops and Deans.
- Awards are provided for extended study leave only and not for long term courses such as PhD or university fees (although fees for a course during an extended study leave will be considered).

Entries must be made using the forms provided.

Judging Criteria

- Judging of the 2016 entries will take place during November 2015 and awards will be made in December 2015. The amount of the individual awards will be judged on the following criteria:
- Value to the individual applicant
- Benefit to the wider church
- Financial support already committed from other sources
