WORSHIP AND TEACHING

If working on the Eco Church survey inspires you to plan a special service, or to include Creation-themed prayers and songs in regular worship, here are some ideas.

Suggestions for sermon outlines, prayers, songs and resources for youth groups and small groups on the resources page of the Eco Church section of A Rocha UK website.

Liturgical resources for Creation and the environment, and also for the agricultural year, are available on the Church of England website: here and also here.

The Church of England Environment Programme provides additional resources for Creationtide or the Season of Creation (from 1 September to 4 October)

A wide range of Creation-themed resources for worship and teaching can be found on the websites of different Christian environmental groups:

- ◆ Greening the Lectionary
- ◆ Green Christian
- ◆ Operation Noah
- ◆ Christian Concern for One World
- ◆ Resound Worship

Those responsible for preaching may find this website helpful: Sustainable Preaching

Additional resources to support churches organising services for Climate Sunday are available here: climatesunday.org/service-resources
